What is a Target Market Determination (TMD)

In this document the terms "we", "us" and "our" refer to Southern Cross Benefits Limited ABN 99 133 401 939, AFSL 331058 trading as Southern Cross Travel Insurance.

This Target Market Determination (TMD) is designed to outline the target market for our products by describing:

- who the product is designed for and their likely objectives, financial situation and needs
- · who the product is not designed for
- distribution conditions for the product
- · reporting criteria, and
- review conditions for our products.

This TMD does not provide any financial product advice on our products and does not take into consideration the objectives, financial situation and needs of individual customers.

The TMD does not form part of the insurance contract and is not a summary of our products' terms and conditions. The examples of who the product is not designed for and who may fall outside the target market are not exhaustive.

If you purchase this product and it is not designed for your circumstances, you may not get:

- · the value from it that you expected, or
- any value from the product at all.

For more help deciding if this product is right for you and for additional details on the product benefits and features, please refer to the relevant Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) and any Supplementary Product Disclosure Statement (SPDS).

Date from which this TMD is effective

This TMD applies for policies issued for our products with a policy effective date from 02/10/2024. This TMD continues until replaced.

1. Who are our travel insurance products designed for, and what are the likely objectives, financial situation, and needs, of customers in this target market?

Southern Cross Travel Insurance provides several types of travel insurance policies to choose from for people who travel in Australia or overseas, including:

- · International Comprehensive
- Annual Multi-trip
- · International Medical Only
- Domestic
- Working Overseas.

Each of these policies has a different target market and we have set these markets out below.

International Comprehensive

Who is this product designed for?

This product is a comprehensive international travel insurance policy designed for people traveling overseas from Australia that want to protect themselves against financial loss caused by unexpected events arising on their journey. These people fall within the eligibility criteria for this cover and are able to pay the premium at the time of purchase at the chosen cost. In the event of a claim, these people are able to pay any excess at their chosen option and are also willing to select a level of cover that is relevant and appropriate for their own circumstances. We consider the benefits under our International Comprehensive insurance are likely to be consistent with the needs, objectives and financial situation of customers in this target market.

If unforeseen additional costs occur, consumers should have the financial means to pay for these costs, then seek reimbursement later. An exception to this is where a customer is admitted to hospital, needs surgery, or needs medical treatment expected to cost over $2,000, in which case, they can call our emergency assistance team to arrange support. We may also contract a third party to provide emergency assistance.

This product is designed for people who will meet the following criteria until the date their insurance would end

Eligible people

- Live in Australia permanently and are eligible for a Medicare card
- · Have not already left Australia
- Intend to travel to a destination outside Australia and will return to Australia after finishing their journey
- Have never been refused cover, had an insurance claim declined, or had an insurance policy cancelled or voided, because of fraud
- Have an Australian bank account and have access to an email address
- Are subject to our other eligibility criteria based on their age at the time of buying the policy, destination and journey duration limits
- Are able to pay premiums at the time of purchase at the chosen cost
- In the event of a claim, these people are able to pay any excess at their chosen option and are also willing to select a level of cover that is relevant and appropriate for their own circumstances.

This product would not be suitable for people who

- Are purchasing travel insurance with the intention of making a claim for something that has already happened that affects their travel plans and/or leads them to incur costs or suffer a financial loss
- Are travelling overseas with the intention of obtaining medical or dental treatment or cosmetic surgery/consultation

Annual Multi-trip

Who is this product designed for?

This product is an annual multi-trip international travel insurance policy designed for people traveling on multiple journeys within a 12 month period, with a maximum duration of 30, 60 or 90 days per journey overseas from Australia that want to protect themselves against financial loss caused by unexpected events arising on their journey. These people fall within the eligibility criteria for this cover and are able to pay the premium at the time of purchase at the chosen cost. In the event of a claim, these people are able to pay any excess at their chosen option and are also willing to select a level of cover that is relevant and appropriate for their own circumstances. We consider the benefits under our Annual Multi-trip insurance are likely to be consistent with the needs, objectives and financial situation of customers in this target market.

If unforeseen additional costs occur, consumers should have the financial means to pay for these costs, then seek reimbursement later. An exception to this is where a customer is admitted to hospital, needs surgery, or needs medical treatment expected to cost over $2,000, in which case, they can call our emergency assistance team to arrange support. We may also contract a third party to provide emergency assistance.

2. Who are these products distributed through and are there any conditions of this distribution?

Distribution of these products

These products are designed to be distributed by us by any of the following means:

- · online via our website
- · by calling our customer service team.

We do not have any distributors who distribute these products to consumers for us.

The products can only be issued to consumers where they are eligible in accordance with application criteria.

The products can only be distributed by our customer service team where they have received training and relevant accreditation (if required) and have met regular compliance reviews.

Conditions and restrictions that may impact the distribution of this product include:

- the products must only be distributed in accordance with this TMD
- · distribution of the products must comply with all of our respective underwriting criteria
- distribution of the products must be conducted through our online platform and our contact centre pursuant to specific channel distribution requirements
- the products cannot be distributed where the TMDs are not up to date and no new TMD has been published, and
- · the TMDs must be current and not subject to any ASIC action that might suggest that a TMD is no longer appropriate.

These distribution conditions make it likely consumers who are issued the products are in the respective target markets because they are supported by reasonably appropriate controls, training and scripting designed to ensure that the products are distributed only to persons within the target markets.

3. When will we review this TMD?

Review period

This TMD may be reviewed at any time, including when specific events or circumstances occur. To ensure that the TMD continues to be appropriate, it may be reviewed for the following reasons (but is not limited to):

- if we make a material change to how our products are sold or distributed
- if one or more terms of the product is materially altered
- an event or circumstance occurs that materially changes a factor taken into account when making the TMD, such as a change in eligibility criteria or underwriting requirements
- the discovery of a material defect in a PDS
- if feedback, such as significant or systemic complaints or claims issues, is received from consumers who purchased the product
- if feedback, regulatory orders, or directions is received from a regulator, the Code Governance Committee (CGC) or Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA)
- if there is a change in law, regulation, or regulatory guidance that materially affects the product design or distribution of product (or class of products that includes this product)
- · where a significant dealing outside the TMD occurs
- · relevant material external events such as relevant litigation or adverse media coverage
- if a remediation event relating to this product occurs, and
- · significant changes in metrics for sales, cancellations, claims data, complaints and loss ratios for the products

In all other circumstances, we will review this TMD within 1 year from the date of preparation to ensure it remains appropriate and every 2 years since the last review.
